Postal Code Search Engine (Individual Project, Front-end) Postal Code Search Engine May 2023

jQuery

This is a website implementing jQuery's Ajax. Specifically, I created a simple site using Ajax communication to input a postal code and display the corresponding address.

First, on the created page, you input a postal code and press the search button. Using Ajax, it sends a request to the postal code data delivery service (zipcloud). During this request, the entered postal code is passed.

The postal code data delivery service (zipcloud) searches for the address based on the received postal code and returns the results in JSONP format. The address information received through jQuery is then reflected and displayed on the page.

SOMMET RED (Individual Project, Front-end) somet-red March 2023

Inside Sales: April 2020 – December 2022; Sales Support (Export Administration): June 2014 – March 2020

I was primarily involved in sales support (export administration), with some involvement in import service operations. I was promoted to Inside Sales, where I achieved an average of more than 30 negotiations per month and a success rate of 30%.

Wismettac Foods (previously IPM Nishimoto) wismettac.com – Tokyo, Japan April 2011 – May 2014

Procurement Assistant (Trade Assistant)

I began my career in a food ingredient trading company, initially serving as an administrative assistant. In the first seven months, I primarily handled sales support duties, including data entry for invoices and purchase order management. I transitioned to become a Procurement Assistant (Trade Assistant).
